Match Report

A brand new fixture, and a very good one at that. Slightly unusual to be playing this 40-over fixture on Easter Monday, but that gave us the chance to introduce Mohan and Amit to Isis Cricket Club and nice too to welcome back Naveen who has returned to the UK for the rest of the season. There was a slightly chaotic start as laggard Isismen found their way through the Henley countryside to a very nice ground on Peppard Common. The match started a little late as a result, with the home side batting, and very well they batted too, the 2nd and 3rd wicket partnerships really putting anything slightly wayward to the sword. Alf Symons was the pick of the bowlers with a trio of wickets, and Nick Wyatt and Ravi Kella took one a piece as Peppard Stoke Row amassed a formidable 218 in their 40 overs. The Captain did a great job in moving people around to defend and keep the score to that and, to be honest, save for a very good catch from Brad Harden to dismiss the dangerous Nutt, the Isis fielding was a little pedestrian. Still, after a nice buffet tea, Isis stepped out to do their best to amass a reply. A nice start from Suresh Sivalingam (20) was ended by a good leg break, and thereafter wickets fell regularly. Alf Symons (14) struck the ball nicely before a quicker ball deceived him, and Isis were in trouble at 101 for 7. But one man showed defiance and Brad Harden (90) led a courageous and near-heroic fight-back that saw him scoring boundaries all around the field, to put Isis within 30 of the total before he lofted one to mid-on to end the innings. It was a terrific knock and worthy of a century, and it brought respectability to the Isis total. Well done to the captain for getting everybody involved in this first fixture of the season, and all credit to Peppard Stoke Row, who played hard but fair and were worthy of their win, being the better side on the day. Hopefully they enjoyed the fixture, so that this becomes a regular on the Isis fixture list.
