Match Report

Rain was forecast, but it was rather a pleasant afternoon when this game started with Isis batting. Before the innings had finished, with Isis in a bit of trouble at 108 for 7, a deluge sent the players in for an early and rather splendid tea, from which they never emerged. Earlier Luke and Mr. P got the innings off to a steady start, the scoring hampered a bit by the latter's gammy leg. When he holed out, Suresh scampered between the wickets and put pressure on the field, and when Luke was bowled, Ravi came in to play a short innings with some nice shots before he was caught, but there was a collapse after that. We'll never know what the result would have been, but credit to the young largely under-16 Minster Lovell side for a good bowling and fielding display.
