Match Report

Our first ever fixture against Oxenford (not for the want of trying) proved to be a very nice match, which Isis lost by a margin that the final; score hides. A good run rate throughout, but marked for very good knocks from Jonners Ponsford, Alf Symons and Mo Naqvi which, with a nice contribution of extras, saw Isis post a credible 198 for 5. Oxenord showed the class of their batting throughout, but Isis were definitely in the driving seat early doors, although wickets were again at a premium. Perhaps Naveen was the most unlucky bowler, beating the bat constantly with klate movement but failing to get an edge or clip a stump. Oxenford still needed 95 to win with 12 overs to go, but they got them in 11 with a very well timed response of good shots and excellent running. Well done to them.
